A Weekly edition of the WHIG STANDARD for country circulation is published every Saturday morning, at ONE DOLLAR per annum, IN ADVANCE.

PROSPECTUS.

THE undersigned, believing that a cheap daily Whig newspaper at the seat of Government would prove a valuable auxiliary to the Whig cause during the approaching Presidential contest, will publish, on the first Monday in November next, a thorough and decided Whig paper, entitled,

THE WHIG STANDARD,
devoted to the principles and policy of that party, as laid down in the following declarations by HENRY CLAY:

- "A sound National Currency, regulated by the will and authority of the Nation;
- "An adequate revenue, with fair protection to American industry;
- "Just restraints on the Executive Power, embracing further restrictions on the exercise of the Veto;
- "A faithful administration of the Public Domain, with an equitable distribution of the proceeds of the sales of land among the States;
- "An honest and economical administration of the General Government, leaving public officers perfect freedom of thought, and of the right of suffrage, but with suitable restraints against improper interference in elections;
- "An amendment of the Constitution limiting the incumbent of the Presidential office to a single term."

To this announcement we believe every true and ardent Whig will favorably respond. The hearts of the Whig army, whose ranks were unbroken, and whose banners floated unstricken during the campaign of '40, must, everywhere, swell with glorious pride at the memory of the past, and their hopes encouraged by their joyful anticipations of the future. It is true a nightmare of treachery now rests upon the energies of the party; but shall we not arouse to the importance of the political conflict which is about to ensue? There are at this time few opposition papers at the Seat of Government, each, in its way, endeavoring to sap the foundations of the Whig party, and blasting the prosperity of the country by the measures they propose. Shall we not rally against the foes excited by these emissaries, whose corrupt and atrocious motives are manifest by their early wrangling for spoils which they never can win? We know the response of millions of freemen will be "AY, RALLY!" Already the "hum of either army stilly sounds;" already the general furnishing of arms "gives dreadful note of preparation;" then let ours be a bright and death-dealing sword in the conflict. Let us rally under a leader upon whose standard is inscribed "Liberty, Order, the Constitution;" whose great political and personal virtues endear him to every generous heart, and whose patriotism has never been excelled—let us rally for HENRY CLAY, the Statesman and Sage, the friend of the workingman, the idol of his country, which, for forty years, next to his God, has had his chief care.

In addition to the thorough Whig course which this paper will pursue, its readers will be furnished with the earliest local intelligence of the city and District, and the general news of the day.

The daily hour of publication will be 6 o'clock in the morning; and during the session of Congress a synopsis of its proceedings will be given up to adjournment, by able reporters; enabling us thus to transmit abroad, through its columns, whatever of interest may transpire, at the earliest hour.

The WHIG STANDARD will be published, daily, at 10 cents per week, payable to the carriers.
The paper will be mailed to subscribers out of the District, at $5 per annum, payable in advance, or for a shorter period at the above rate.
P. S. All communications by mail must be post paid, or they will remain in the post office.

THE undersigned respectfully inform merchants and the citizens of the District generally, that they have established an office in Washington city for the receiving and forwarding East, West, and South of valuable Packages, Parcels, Samples, Bundles, &c.; which they are fully prepared to transport by mail speed.

As they are the only persons who have a contract with the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company for that purpose, they are enabled to receive and forward goods, &c. in advance of any other line.

Merchants and others who wish to avail themselves of our line, and who order goods, &c. from Boston, New York, Philadelphia, and Baltimore, will find it to their advantage to direct in care of the following:

Per Adams & Co's Express from Boston and New York.
Per Shoemaker & Sanford's Express from Philadelphia.

Per Rogers & Co's Express from Baltimore.
We receive Packages, Parcels, &c. for the East, West, and South at all hours during the day, and deliver them to the consignee soon as received. We will also receive and forward from Baltimore and Washington goods and articles of every description, by the first regular trains.

THE WONDERFUL CURES

Performed by Dr.
SWAYNE'S
Compound Syrup of Wild Cherry, in
Pulmonary CONSUMPTION, have excited the astonishment of all who have witnessed its marvellous effects; there is no account of a medicine, from the earliest ages furnishing a parallel; the almost miraculous cures effected by this extraordinary medicine, are unprecedented. One among the many certificates may be seen below.

CINCINNATI, Feb. 15, 1840.

Dr. SWAYNE—Dear Sir:
PERMIT me to take the liberty of writing to you at this time to express my approbation, and to recommend to the attention of heads of families and others your invaluable medicine—the Compound Syrup of Prunus Virginiana, or Wild Cherry Bark. In my travels of late, I have seen, in a great many instances, the wonderful effects of your medicine in relieving children of very obstinate complaints, such as Coughing, Wheezing, Choking of Phlegm, Asthmatic attacks, &c. I should not have written this letter, however, at present, although I have felt it my duty to add my testimony to it for some time, had it not been for a late instance where the medicine above alluded to was instrumental in restoring to perfect health an "only child," whose case was almost hopeless, in a family of my acquaintance. "I thank Heaven," said the doating mother, "my child is saved from the jaws of death!" and I now say and believe that, beyond all doubt, Dr. Swayne's Compound Syrup of Wild Cherry is the most valuable medicine in this or any other country. I am certain I have witnessed more than one hundred cases where it has been attended with complete success. I am using it myself in an obstinate attack of Bronchitis, in which it proved effectual in an exceedingly short time, considering the severity of the case. I can recommend it in the fullest confidence of its superior virtues; I would advise that no family should be without it; it is very pleasant and always beneficial—worth double, and often ten times its price. The public are assured there is no quackery about it.
R. JACKSON, D.D.

Formerly Pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, N.Y.
In districts where Calomel and Quinine have been too freely made use of in bilious complaints, &c., Dr. Swayne's Compound Syrup of Wild Cherry, will prevent their evil effects on the system, and act as a strengthening alternative and improve the Bilious functions.

CAUTION.—All preparations from this valuable tree, except the original Dr. Swayne's Compound Syrup of Wild Cherry, are spurious and counterfeit. Prepared only by Dr. Swayne, whose office is now removed to N. W. corner of Eighth and Race streets, Philadelphia.

HOARHOUD CANDY.—The subscriber has recently been appointed agent for the sale of Pease's Hoarhound Candy. He could speak from personal knowledge of its beneficial effects in cases of severe cold, coughs, &c., but, lest he may be deemed an interested witness, he adduces the following, among numerous other testimonies, to the same import:
Hermitage, April 17, 1843.

I have the pleasure to acknowledge your kind favor of the 1st ultimo, by the hand of my friend, Mr. J. Armstrong, and with it your most esteemed present, a package of your Hoarhound Candy, for which receive my sincere thanks. I can only add, that many thousands receive from its use as much benefit as I have done, then will its inventor go down to posterity as one of its benefactors.

I am gentlemen, very respectfully,
Your friend and obdt. servt.,
ANDREW JACKSON.
Messrs. Pease & Sons.

Washington, April 6, 1843.
The President desires me to return Messrs. Pease & Sons his acknowledgments and very sincere thanks for the box of Candy received at their hands. He has used it with much benefit to himself, as a remedy for cold and cough. I am, with very much respect,
JOHN TYLER, jr., Private Secretary.

Albany, May 15, 1842.
Gentlemen: You will pardon me for the delay in replying to your letter of the 14th ultimo, and acknowledging the receipt of a box of your Clarified Essence of Hoarhound Candy.

Allow me to thank you for this kind respect, and to express the hope that you will be liberally patronized in your efforts for the public. The article is got up in beautiful style, and is highly commended by those who have had occasion to use it.
Your obdt. servt.,
WM. C. BOUCK.
Messrs. Pease & Sons.

City Hall, New York, June 27, 1843.

Messrs: I have repeatedly used your Candy for coughs and colds, and always found relief, but official duties prevented me from writing to you before. But as I have lately been cured of the influenza, I cannot withhold from recommending the same to the public.
I am yours, truly,
ROBT. H. MORRIS.
Messrs. Pease & Sons, 45 Division street.

Lindenwald, Oct. 14, 1843.

Gentlemen: I have to thank you for the box of your, I doubt not, justly celebrated Clarified Essence of Hoarhound Candy, and also for the very obliging terms in which you have been pleased to present it. I have not, I am happy to inform you, as yet had occasion to use it, but will do so when necessary, with a confidence in its efficacy which is well warranted by the experience of others.
Very respectfully, your obedient servant,
M. VAN BUREN.

After all, the best recommendation of it is a personal application which he invites those afflicted with coughs and all public speakers to make. He will keep a constant supply at his Family Grocery Store, on 7th street, nearly opposite the Patriotic Bank.

MISCELLANEOUS.

From the Lowell Courier.

THE WHIG HOBBY.

Dedicated, respectfully, to the "Clay Clubs"—ubique gentium—by the author.

No! all ye brave Whigs of eighteen forty-four, Come join in the song of "the Hobbies" once more. Our Hobby is CLAY—he's a mettlesome steed, Well trained to the turf, and is sure to succeed.

All on our Clay Hobby

The Patriot's Hobby,

A noble old Hobby—

Then "go it" boys, go!

The Hobby of Locos—whose'er be their man— Is to lose the dear people, and get what they can. VAV BUREN, BUCHANAN, or TYLER, or CLAY— The Fox, or the Mastiff—the Owl, or the Ass! But CLAY is our Hobby, The Patriot's Hobby, A noble old Hobby, Then "go it" boys, go!

How hard and severe are their labors and toils! They ride hard for the race, but they grasp at the spoils. Oh, how their "mouths water" for plentiful dishes, The "spoils of the victor"—"the loaves and the fishes!"

Yes, these are their Hobbies, They are Van Buren Hobbies, They are Democrat Hobbies— Shall we "go it" boys? no!

Oh! the rogues! what mad schemes are contriv'd in their lobbies! What tricks to deceive us! what humbugs and hobbies! Sub-Treasury, State Rights, leg-bail, and "hard money!"

Hard cash for themselves—for the people not "any!" Oh, these are their Hobbies, They are Van Buren Hobbies, True demagogue Hobbies— Shall we "go it" boys?—no!

They have one hobby more—it is "Reputation!" The hobby of knaves, who would ruin the nation. Having nothing to lose, nor in cash, nor in credit, They sponge out their debt, and then sneer they have paid it!

'Tis a wind-blown Hobby, 'Tis a radical's Hobby, 'Tis a rascally Hobby, For shame!—let it go!

Away with such nonsense! such tricks and such trash!

It is honest hard labor that brings us hard cash. And the Whigs are the boys—'tis a maxim with CLAY— To buy what they need, and then honestly pay.

O, CLAY is our Hobby, An honest old Hobby, A proud, noble Hobby, Then "go it" boys, go!

CALHOUN has a hobby—'tis "Nullification;" He is all for his State—not a cent for the nation; And yet, if he could, he would think it but fair, To plant himself plump in the President's chair!

Oh, he's not a Whig Hobby, He's not a Van Hobby, He's a whirling Hobby, CALHOUN is "no go!"

The hobby of Johnson—oh, my "rumpsey dumpy," Is "Amalgamation" and "killing Tecumseh." But why make a fuss? he's a bold, daring fellow, Having killed off the "red," let him stick to the "yellow."

Oh, he's not our Hobby, But CLAY is our Hobby, Our Kentucky Hobby, Then "go it" boys, go!

Has Benton a hobby? I'll bet you a guinea, 'Tis to manage Missouri, and live in "Virginia!" He once dealt in SALT,—O how bright were his glory.

Had he but the attic, in his attic story! But he's not a Whig Hobby, He's a "ball-rolling" Hobby, He is nobody's Hobby,— Oh, then let him go!

And now my Whig brothers, what more shall I say? We Whigs have our Hobby—that Hobby is CLAY! As a Patriot and Statesman, how firm he will stand In defence of our RIGHTS, both by sea and by land!

Yes, he's the Whig Hobby, Kentucky's proud Hobby, The whole nation's Hobby,— Then "go it" boys, go!

"See Benton's famous salt report, and documents."

KISSING—A NEW YEAR'S CUSTOM.

Mick Mahony, Mrs. Biddy Mahony, and Nancy Donahoe were individually and collectively charged yesterday before the Recorder, by the watchman, with disturbing the peace.

Miss Donahoe was a good-looking, round, red-faced, blue-eyed girl. Mrs. Mahony was a hard featured, sharp-nosed lady, with a tongue which seemed to operate on the principles of perpetual motion; and Mr. Mahony was a humorous-looking character, with a leer in his eye and a laugh playing about the corners of his mouth, which were well calculated to excite the jealousy of Mrs. M. when so comely a colleen as Nancy Donahoe was in the case.

The watchmen was proceeding to state the charge with loquacious verbosity, but Mrs. Mahony claimed of the Court the right to relate the matter herself, alleging that she was the injured individual. As she would not be silent, the Recorder assented, and she went on, her lord and master, Mick, looking imploringly into her eyes in the meantime, and making an appeal to her pity in the following words—

"Biddy, Biddy, jewel, be aisy, and if you can't be aisy, be as aisy as you can."

Biddy heeded not the voice of the charmer, but proceeded.

"Well, ye see on New Year's night, yer anner, I had a nice little tay party at me place; and of course, when the kimmers [tea equipage] was removed, we had a drop of punch in aner of the night, though sarrah a drop of it did I take me-self, on account of the pledge."

"There's a good one!" said Mick, in sotto voce, turning to Nancy Donahoe.

"Mrs. Mahony," said the Recorder, "you are too discursive—too prolix. I only wish you to state the cause of the riot or disturbance."

"I'm comin' to the point, yer anner," returned Biddy.

"O, Biddy, acushla," said Mick, "ye know 'twas all a bit of joke—a New Year's night frolic."

"A purty joke it was, ye desavin' villian!" exclaimed Biddy. "That's the father of me four chidder—to be kissin' that brazen-faced hussey there the instant ye got me back turned—and you purtendin' to be so jealous of Tim Doolin all the time, that was me mother's cousin be his father's side, and—"

"Mrs. Mahony," said the Recorder, "I cannot sit here and listen to the genealogy of your family, or the degree of consanguinity that exists between you and Tim Doolin. I again call on you to come to the cause of the disturbance for which you were all arrested."

"Well, thin," resumed Mrs. Mahony, "whin we were all sated round the table, as happy as ye place, chatin' and talkin' about ould times, Mick sis to Harry Whelan, sis he—Harry, avick, li's have a song." "Always contin', sis Harry. 'What'll ye have, Mrs. Mahony?' sis he to me. 'Plase yer-self, Misher Whelan,' sis I, 'and ye plase me;' so with that he commenced 'Hurrah for O'Connell, wholl' git us Repale!' Well, he hadn't well begun it whin me bowld Mick sis—'I beg yer pardin, gintleels,'—jist that a-way, quite purtely like—and up he gits and walks out, and out he stays, and serraah a sign of him there was comin' in whin the song, which has twinty-one varses in it, was incored. Well, yer anner, I begins to snail a rat, and I ups and goes to the dure, and there I hears Miss Donahoe, the forward minx,—though she looks now as if butter wouldn't melt in her mouth—singin' in great glee 'Rory O'More.' Well, I stales to the windy—she lives next door—and, sure enough, whin she comes to the chorus of 'It's eight times to-day that ye kissed me afore,' the vagabone does shute the action to the word, and gives her a smackin' thumpogue! Well, 'twas too much for flesh and blud to stand, so of course I gev both of them what they deserved—I gev them sugar in their tay!"

"That's sufficient," said the Recorder. "What have you to say, Mr. Mahony?"

Mick smiled amorously, drew his hand over his face, and looked archly between his extended fingers at Nancy Donahoe and Mrs. Mahony. He acknowledged the soft impeachment of kissing Nancy, but pleaded in extenuation the privilege of doing so on New Year's night; and further, that Biddy kissed Tim Doolin right for ninnis his face!

The Recorder viewed the affair in the same hilarious light that Mick Mahony did, and discharged the parties on paying jail fees.

MERE WEALTH.

What do you mean by mere wealth. My notion is present comforts, independence of hirelings whether man or beast, and as to wealth what is there in this world beyond it? What else controls the march of empires, the progress of civilization, the development of science, the cultivation of art? What but money causes the crucible to grow, sinks the shaft, launches the balloon into the sky, or plunges the diving bell into the depth of the ocean. Of what metal is composed the key of the poet's imagination, the orator's eloquence, the physician's skill, the divine's zeal and fervor? Of gold, sir, of current gold. He who has that, commands kings on their thrones, or philosophers in their cabinets. Talk not to me of the refinements of art. If I want to enjoy them I buy up both art and artists, an orchestra of musicians, a legion of sculptors and painters! Your capitalist, is the only solid sovereign of modern times!—Mrs. Gore.
